

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO MALAYSIA (SECOND BATCH)

AUSTRALIA

- The Australian Government welcomes the Malaysian Government's recent announcement that it will abolish the death penalty and, while the relevant legislation makes its way through Parliament, place a moratorium on the application of the death penalty.

Could you outline in detail the complete process the Government intends to follow for the abolition of the death penalty in Malaysia following the introduction of legislation to Parliament?