

ADVANCE QUESTIONS TO SAN MARINO (FIRST BATCH)

PORTUGAL on behalf of the Group of Friends on NMIRF's

- Could the State-under-review describe its national mechanism or process responsible for coordinating the implementation of accepted UPR recommendations and the monitoring of progress and impact?
- Has the State-under-review established a dedicated 'national mechanism for implementation, reporting and follow-up' (NMIRF) covering UPR recommendations, but also recommendations/observations generated by the UN human rights Treaty Bodies, the Special Procedures and relevant regional mechanisms, which, inter alia, clusters all the above, manages them in national databases, coordinates implementation actions across government, monitors progress and impact, and then streamline reporting procedures back to the UN? If so, could the State-under-review briefly share its experience on creating such mechanism, including challenges faced and lessons learnt, as well as any plans or needs to strengthen the NMIRF in the future?

UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND

- What is the Government of San Marino doing to manage the potential risk that the legislation to regulate journalism and enforce the Code of Conduct may lead to restrictions on media freedom?
- What research has the Government of San Marino conducted to identify those sectors most at risk from modern slavery, and what plans do they have for raising awareness about modern slavery and human trafficking, for both the general public and the sectors most at risk?
- What is the Government of San Marino doing to ensure access to sexual and reproductive health services for all women and girls?
- Does the Government of San Marino have any plans to ratify the Protocol of 2014 to the Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (P029)?

GERMANY

- In the last UPR cycle, Germany's recommendation regarding the ratification and full implementation of the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance found San Marino's support. However, to this date, the San Marino has not ratified the Convention. Could the Government of San Marino please explain why the ratification process is still ongoing? When will the process be completed?
